There was also a workshop taken by Divyansh Mourya Batch 2k22 regarding GSoC, creating awareness among the 2k23 batch. Cisco Campus Ambassador Program also took place in which various students participated. Akriti Upadhyay was elected as the Cisco Campus Ambassador from batch 2k23. PGion conducted a Photography event named "Picture Perfect" on March 20th, for which the students were very enthusiastic.

Then it was time for the end semester examinations, which started on March 22nd and concluded on March 24th. The paper's level was decent, and exams were conducted on different platforms, such as MS teams, canvas and CBT portal. Seniors(Batch 2k22) also had their second cycle tests in the last week of the month. As soon as the exams concluded, Version inductions started on March 24th with an introduction meeting, after which responses were taken through Google forms. Seniors asked different questions regarding the committee's choice, their work, and individual interests. They formed groups for each committee, and each followed their procedure for inductions. The inductions were wrapped up by March 31st, the results of which are yet to come out. The OGMA concluded the month with a refreshing and rejuvenating workshop taken by members of batch 2k23, which was themed on "Learning with fun" and involved various fun activities like War of Words, guess the gibberish, guess the legend, etc. At the end of the workshop, names of the winner of different games were announced, and certificates were distributed.

Regards,
